Catching up with Paris' new creative class

Malick N'Diaye and Hepatite X

How did you meet Hepatite X? Malick: Through a friend, the designer Xuly Bêt. I think they're talented and fresh. I like music and when I find talented artists, I do my best to help them grow.

How did the band meet? Jazz: We go to the same junior high school and decided to form a band after a school show.

What's on your playlist?

Lola: Kurt Cobain

Jazz: Joe Strummer

Joseph: Keith Moon

Léo: Jimi Hendrix

What are you currently working on? Our first album. Jazz writes the lyrics and guitar riff, then we all get involved and Léo brings some blues to our punk world.
